

FOR THOSE IN NEED. Eastmont High school Junior Red Cross members are campaigning for about $70 needed to finance and fill this chest with necessary medical supplies which will be sent anywhere in the world they might be needed. The chest was made by the shop classes and decorated by the art class. Shown filling the chest are left to right, Judd Hamilton, Bev Miller, Betty McGee and Dick Dolan.

Badger Mountain

By Mrs Robert Bromiley ✱

The Badger Mt Ladies Club met at the home of Mrs Robert Bromiley, Jr last Thursday for a pot luck dinner. Club president, Mrs Clayton Rainey presided over the afternoon business session. Two reports were given on different methods of safety. Mrs James Marr reported on Fire Hazards and Prevention in the Home. Mrs Oscar Breiler talked on Poisons and their Antidotes. These reports were prepared from material compiled and distributed by the Washington State Safety Council in Olympia.

The Stitch and Stuff 4-H Club met at the home of Clark Bromiley last Saturday morning for their monthly business session. They discussed their current committee

Local Clubs Are Boosting Festival

Several Eastside service clubs are cooperating in the sale of Apple Blossom Festival buttons in return for a percentage of the sale price for their own projects, according to R W Day, director-general. Sales to individuals in the Wenatchee area began last Monday, March 7.

In announcing the new plan for selling Apple Blossom Festival buttons, Day pointed out that this year button purchasers will be doing a double community service -- backing the Apple Blossom Festival and contributing to the work of the organization from which they buy their button.

Lee School Area

By Mrs David John
The Claude Sullivans were happy

friends attended. Several games were played and prizes awarded. Mrs Syl Neigel won the door prize. Instead of individual gifts Mrs

Corbin was presented a money tree.

Mrs Robert Jonn is home again after being in the hospital