Dallas Correspondence.

Dallas, May 14, 1897.

THE WOOL FACTORY.
BOSTON STATESMAN.—The organization of the "Wool Manufacturing Company" the directors have finished great activity, and are constantly aiming to push the enterprise to an early and successful issue. Instead of telegraphing East for the machinery, Mr. Abrams has been selected by the directors to proceed to the Atlantic States with full power to procure the machinery for the factory, and, in fact, take such steps as he thinks most suitable to promote the interest of his Company. Meanwhile, our citizens are engaged in introducing sheep into this region. The presumption is that the hills around the Dallas, as well as the adjoining prairie will be crowded with sheep, and the factory supplied with an abundance of wool.

STEWART CHANGES.
The O. S. N. Company are despatching their weekly steamers from Celilo to Walla. This, we might not, can be traced to the great falling off of travel and freight on the Columbia river route. How different two and three years ago, and even last year! But another the Company were to make large reductions in freights, and the Portlanders exert themselves to establish a cheap line of coasting from a weekly time will soon meet the requirements of the Columbia River trade.

PROSPECTING.
A letter from the upper country informs me that quite a stampede is setting in towards the country south of the Dalles. The Boise miners particularly seem to share in the expectation of striking something rich in the Crooked River country, hence we may look for new discoveries.

FOSTER'S BUILDING.
Mr. D. French, of French & Gilman, has just completed a beautiful residence which cost over ten thousand dollars. It is one of the finest buildings in Oregon. Mr. French has also just finished an elegant dwelling. Great attention is being bestowed on gardens, and although the season is still very thing looks lively.

GOO TARIFFS.
The following officers of Mountain Gem Lodge No. 8, I. O. G. T. were duly installed on the evening of May 3d, 1897:
W. P. Shupe, W. C. T. Miss R. W. Sylvester, W. T. W. Colman, W. S. M. Reynolds, W. F. S. Mr. Stevens, W. T. J. W. Stevens, W. M. C. Mrs. Horton, W. L. G. Chas. C. Clark, J. J. W. Kiger, and J. T. Shupe. This lodge numbers 42 members, and is in a flourishing condition.

DELEGATES.
J. J. Connelton, J. M. Vandyck, J. J. W. Kiger, and J. T. Shupe, are the delegates from the county to the Democratic National Convention, to be held in St. Louis, Mo., on the 17th of August. They were elected on the 14th inst., by a vote of 1,000 to 500.
