I dont see why you cant give me a pension. When you give it to others who are more deserving than I am, and who do not need as much as I do. my husband died from disease caught in the Army while Mrs J. J. Wintrobe's husband Capt J. J. Wintrobe died from an operation made by the doctors who cut his gall stones out, and he died and you gave her a pension, while my husband died of his Army disease and Capt Wintrobe did not. I enlisted Apr 22nd 1861, was healthy, strong and robust; had Chronic-diarrhea nearly all the time I was in the army so that my intestine canal was ulcerated from tooth & food as a consequence. I have had piles ever since 1862, constantly getting worse. I had inflammatory-rheumatism in August 1861, and slightly ever since; - had black-measles in Feb/62, and for want of proper quarters was turned out in a raw-snow-storm early in Mar/62, causing pneumonia, which nearly killed me then and injured my lungs a very little, ever since; I also think it causes neuralgia.

I was able in 1855-60 to do nearly two hands work on a farm - have not been able since discharge to do a quarter of outlay work. was on several very hard marches, in seven Hospitals & 3 battles; was wounded in left hand, left-knee, right thigh and right leg at Pittsburgh Landing from Apr 6th 7th 1862, lay out on the battle-field until the 10th in afternoon, when my broken limbs were so badly injured that amputation was pronounced dangerous by Drs - Kellogg, Walker, Black and others, else I should have lost both legs. the wound in my right leg is occasionally a running sore yet.

I am unable, most of the time, to bear my weight (now nearly 190) on my left leg; and in extremely hot or cold weather (or wet weather) I am either laid up with rheumatism, or with running sore on leg. My Wife is nearly 60 years old and has been an almost helpless invalid for over 5 years. Respectfully submitted - Charles P. Gidd

WHEREAS, BE IT REMEMBERED, That on the 15th day of September, A. D., 1904, in the Shawnee County District Court, Third Judicial District, State of Kansas, before the Hon. Z. T. Hazen, presiding Judge, it being at the September, 1904, Term of said Court, the following proceedings, among others, were had, to-wit:

C. P. Judd,	Plaintiff,	}	No. 22810.
Melissa Judd,	Defendant.

Now on this the 15th day of September, 1904, the same being the September term, of the said Court, the above cause came on to be heard upon the evidence and allegations of parties: The plaintiff was present in his own proper person and by his attorney, N. B. Arnold, but the defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney. The Court, after hearing the evidence and examining the pleadings, and allegations of plaintiff, finds: That all the allegations in plaintiff's petition are true; that the defendant has been duly served with summons according to law and is wholly in default.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed by the Court, on the day and year aforesaid, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, be forever dissolved and held for naught; that plaintiff be divorced from defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of a single and unmarried man.

It is further decreed and ordered that plaintiff shall pay the costs of this action, taxed at $_____, and that this decree of divorce shall not become absolute until six months have passed herefrom.

Judge.
