On this 24th day of June 1880 personally appeared before me, Clerk of a Court of Record in and for the aforesaid County duly authorized to administer oaths, Elizabeth Cross aged 71 years a resident of Polk in the County of Webster and State of Iowa, whose Post Office is the same well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit and who, being duly sworn declared in relation to the aforesaid case as follows.

That she is the claimant mentioned in the foregoing above entitled claim.

That she was married to her second husband Abel Cross about May 13th 1876. That the said Abel Cross was a poor man at the time he married her and had no property of his own, nor afterwards as far as she knows. That they lived together only two months and a half, when she was compelled to go to Austin, Texas, and earn her own living. During the two months and a half they lived together they rented a small farm about 20 miles from Austin. Affiant lived at Austin for five years, earning her own living all the time without any assistance from her husband. He paid rent, and affiant saw only once during that time and has never seen him, nor heard from him and believes him now to be dead. Affiant herself had no property of her own at the time of her marriage in 1875 and has had none since. Since living in Austin she has lived in a great many places, in Kansas, Nebraska Colorado, California and Iowa earning her own living constantly, doing housework, and living in no town more than a year.

During all of which time she has had no assistance from her pre-and husband. He paid rents.
She makes these statements to recover the pension due her
