An Eye On Hollywood Will Present

By FRANK TAYLOR

the Grand Old Lady of Silent films and widow of Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, celebrated her 80th birthday last week with friends and fellow actors. She is still working in motion pictures and has no intention of retiring. Her career began in 1913 with Max Sennett and includes the first five films Charlie Chaplin ever made.

As a legitimate actress, Minta toured Asia and played before the last Dowager Empress of China and the last Queen of Hawaii. Returning to the United States with Roscoe, with Sennett and started a last a decade. The story of Fatty Arbuckle is now in preparation as motion picture and is expected to go before the cameras soon. Minta hopes that her version, which she insists includes all the facts about Roscoe's scandal and important early day history of Hollywood, will clear the comedian's name of the terrible Virginia Rappe scandal that ended his career more than 48 years ago.

Few women have done as many things as Minta. She and Roscoe once met Pancho Villa while they were playing a small border town in Texas, and knew Caruso
